PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Website Development Experience

Independent Project (Hair Care Website )

Jul 2024 - August 2024

I have developed a comprehensive hair care website as part of my academic projects, focusing on creating a user-friendly interface and engaging design. This project involved the creation of various sections, such as hair treatments, home remedies, and product details, all crafted using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. I ensured the website was responsive and accessible across different devices, emphasizing best practices in web development. This project enhanced my skills in front-end development and provided valuable experience in designing and implementing websites from scratch.

Independent Projects (Movie Website)

Dec 2023 - Present

I have developed a dynamic movie website as part of my academic projects, focusing on creating an intuitive and visually appealing user experience. This project involved the creation of various sections, including movie categories, detailed descriptions, and user reviews, all built using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. I ensured that the website is fully responsive and accessible on different devices, adhering to the best practices in web development. This project significantly enhanced my front-end development skills and provided valuable experience in designing and implementing interactive websites from the ground up.
